

Home Learning Activities

You can complete ONE of these activities between now and half term. Due date: Monday 20st October 2025

Stone Age Poster= Research the Stone Age and create a poster presenting what you have discovered. You could search <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• What types of animals existed?</li><li>• What did people wear?</li><li>• You could find include some interesting facts or pictures.</li><li>• You could include some of pictures of cave drawings or draw some of your own.</li></ul>	Stone Age Artwork= Create your own piece of Stone Age artwork. You could- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Create your own piece of cave art.</li><li>• Draw a picture of a stone age settlement</li><li>• Create a setting picture, including different animals and people.</li></ul>	Stone Age builder= You could make your artwork 3D- <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Create your own Stone Age cave using different materials.</li><li>• Create a Stone Age setting using a cardboard box.</li></ul>
Stone Age Explorer= -You could explore your local forest and have a go at building your own shelter. (Remember to take photos of your shelter)	Stone Age Writer= -You could write a 'What life was like during the Stone Age' booklet.	Stone Age Baker= -You could bake some Stone Age oatcakes.